

REMARKS BY THE GOVERNOR
OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO
HON. RAFAEL HERNADEZ COLON
WHEN CELEBRATING MRS. PAULA KISSINGER'S
90TH BIRTHDAY

FEBRUARY 24, 1991

My Friends:

It is an honor and a pleasure for my wife Lila and myself to have been invited to this intimate gathering, celebrating the youthful 90th birthday of our good friend, Paula.

For many years now, Paula has been a friend of this Commonwealth, returning to visit us as she would her second home, which we hope we are for her.

Her sons Walter and Henry are by no means strangers to this Commonwealth. Our greatest desire is to reach out to peace loving peoples of all nations and share our natural beauty, and our warm and heartfelt friendship for all who share some of their time with us.

I hope we will have many more occasions in which to share with the Kissinger family moments of warm understanding and camaraderie such as we are sharing today.

Paula, Lila and I wish you a very Happy Birthday, together with your lovely family, and indeed that your visits to Puerto Rico continue for many birthdays to come.
